

REAL DAUGHTERS

New York Real Daughters 91 - listed by Chapter affiliation
Other States Real Daughters buried in NYS 16 - listed by Chapter affiliation
Real Daughter designation - To be considered a DAR Real Daughter the person had to be a member of the DAR and the daughter of a Revolutionary War Patriot
The information listed has been gathered from a number of sources: the Historian Generals Office, the DAR Magazine, DAR applications and membership cards, Congress Proceedings, material from Ann Morton (Past Reporter General) and death Indexes & Cemetery records which are available online.
Being included on this list does not guarantee lineage for the Real Daughter or proof of service for the patriot. Some lineages or parent's services need additional proof.
Those states or chapters wishing to mark or rededicate graves of Real Daughters should contact the Historian General's Office for information.
